

Baytown Texas A&M Mothers' Club Class of 2029 Scholarship

Spring 2025 Scholarship Information

Howdy! Congratulations on your acceptance to Texas A&M University and your decision to join the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2029!

On the attached page, you will find the application requirements for the Baytown Texas A&M Mothers' Club Scholarship. Please make sure you look over the eligibility criteria at the top of the next page and complete the entire application. Please read and answer both parts of the question carefully and include all requirements in your submission. A copy of this application can be found on our website at <http://baytownmoms.aggienetwork.com>. Any questions you may have can be directed to our email at baytownaggiemoms@gmail.com.

To be considered, you must be accepted by and planning to attend one of the specified Texas A&M campuses. Your application must include:

- This completed and signed application
- A well written essay that fully addresses the provided prompt
- Full resume that includes activities, clubs, organizations, sports, leadership positions, service opportunities, community involvement, and any other participation, honors, or accolades
- Three letters of recommendation vouching for your character and work ethic
- Official transcript with your GPA (on 4.0 scale) and grade records

Applications without all required items will not be considered. For GCCISD students, all requirements must be turned in to the counselor in charge of scholarships on your campus by the campus/district deadline. For students applying independently (not through your school), applications must be submitted by mail postmarked by March 21, 2025. Scholarship recipients will be contacted by email later in the spring.

Thanks & Gig 'em,

Baytown A&M Mothers' Club
